

Isaiah 40

31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

Expressions of gratitude

The Jackson family wishes to thank everyone for your kind expressions of sympathy, prayer, and all acts of kindness extended to us during our time of bereavement.

We would like to give special thanks to Mr. Joseph Dismuke, Sharon Mathis, and Beverly McElroy for all the love, patience, support, and spiritual comfort each of you provided our mother. May God bless and keep you!

OBITUARY

Deloise (Dee) Jackson was born the youngest of seven siblings in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on October 20, 1954 to Verta Mae Haywood and Robert Tate.

She attended Star Spencer High School where she graduated in 1971. For a short time she attended nursing school with hopes of becoming a nurse, but decided not to when a patient she grew close to passed away.

Deloise worked at Taco Bell doing her high school years and briefly after graduating. She gained employment as a clerk for the City of Oklahoma where she was employed for fifteen years, Dee simply enjoyed learning about everything. She could provide you with any number of agencies to call if you ever needed assistance with anything. She enjoyed hanging, laughing, and talking with family and friends, and believed that by "using common sense", you could see yourself through and situation.

Deloise was called home to glory March 21, 2023, surrounded by family and friends. She is survived in death by her children, Starla (Greg) Jackson, Sterling Jackson and Stephen Jackson, sister Catherine Pruitt, and brothers John L. (Marth) Haywood, Alfred Lee (Geraldine) Haywood and Edward (Linda) Tate, eighteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, husband Sterling Jackson, son Richard Jackson, daughter Roslynn Jackson, and brothers Howard Leo Williams, David Reagor, and Robert Tate.
